

Precise Biometrics CEO participates in SME Play and the 10x podcast

Precise Biometrics AB (publ) announces that the company's CEO, Joakim Nydemark, participates in two investor-focused interviews in connection with the recently completed merger with Fingerprint Cards (FPC) and the rights issue announced on July 20, 2026.

In the interviews, Joakim Nydemark discusses the strategic rationale behind the merger, how the combined company intends to drive growth and create long-term value for customers and shareholders, and how the capital raised through the rights issue is intended to be used.

The discussions also cover identified synergies, positive macro trends within security and AI, and why trusted identification is becoming increasingly important in an era of deepfakes, identity fraud and rapid digitalization.
